Presidents Report for 25 July 2018

Twenty members and partners gathered at the Oakleigh-Carneige RSL last Wednesday for a social evening. Good food and a drink or two made for a very pleasant evening in which everyone had an enjoyable time catching up. Sean provided some musical memories on the big screen which brought back a few memories of our younger years. Thank you all who attended and Sean for organising such a good night.

Even though it was a very cold day our Bunnings sausage sizzle on Friday took in $703. Thank you all for your assistance and those who stood in at the last minute. Not only is it a good fundraiser for the club it is also an opportunity for members to catch up and have a good chat. We were at Bunnings on Saturday and had a sausage from the charity on duty. I can confirm that the way we present and the quality of the sausages served up is equal to, if not better than any of the other charities. We have a few more BBQ's before the end of the year.

At last weeks meeting Ivona made a request for project called pinchapoo. It is a project to reuse airline vanity sets, shampoos, conditioners, tooth brushes etc from hotels and give to them to disadvantaged people. You can check out the website, www.pinchapoo.org.au. Please bring any you may have collected to our weekly meeting.

On Friday night I attended a cluster meeting of Monash A and Monash B. These clusters consist of Clayton, Glen Waverley, Huntingdale, Monash, Mount Waverley, Oakleigh, Waverley and Wheelers Hill. Only a couple of Presidents could not attend. It was pleasing to hear our AG Bronwen Lamond comment on our club in a very positive way. She talked about her attendance at the changeover night and the dynamism of the club. She liked the way we are moving forward and trying new things whilst maintaining the Rotary principles. It was good to hear what the other clubs are doing and gave good food for thought on some things we could become involved in.

Next week we have a member behind the badge presentation from Nicholas Richards. I look forward to a good turnout to hear from one of our newest members.

Have a good week in Rotary

Philip

BUNNINGS

Takings on Friday, 20 July at Bunnings BBQ was $703 thanks to Ron and Loretta's constant spruiking.

A cool but sunny day until 1pm, then a sprinkle of rain, just enough to dampen the table cloths.

Thanks to Fiona, Ron, Rhonda, Philip, Loretta, Lyn for their assistance.

Below is the Roster for this coming Friday 27 July

One more person is needed between 11 am & 1 pm – please email me if you can assist at that time.
